The Contest Narrowed Down.

THE MOST CAREFUL CALCULATION YET PUBLISHED.

[From the Springfield Republican, Oct. 18.]

Upon every fair review of the situation, the decision of next month's election comes finally to depend solely upon the vote of New York. The following States are practically certain to vote in the electoral college as indicated below:

For Hayes		For Tilden.
Colorado	3	Alabama	10
Illinois	21	Arkansas	6
Iowa	11	California	6
Kansas	5	Connecticut	6
Maine	7	Delaware	3
Massachusetts	13	Florida	4
Michigan	11	Georgia	11
Minnesota	5	Indiana	15
Nebraska	3	Kentucky	12
Nevada	3	Louisiana	8
New Hampshire	5	Maryland	8
Ohio	22	Mississippi	8
Pennsylvania	29	Missouri	15
Rhode Island	4	New Jersey	9
Vermont	5	North Carolina	10
Wisconsin	10	Oregon	3
		Tennessee	12
		Texas	8
		Virginia	11
		West Virginia	5
Total	157	Total	170

There remain only New York (35) and South Carolina (7) as uncertain; with Tilden within 15 votes of a majority, and Hayes 28 short, or 21 if we allow South Carolina to him; and so New York elects our man in either case. We are aware that claims are put forward by the Republicans for some of the States included in the Tilden column, but they do dot appear reasonable. Take Indiana, for instance. It is a favorite theory of the Republican organs that, as Indiana elected Hendricks Governor four years ago, and then voted for Grant in November, so, after having chosen Williams Governor last week, she is going to vote for Hayes in November. But the fallacy of this has been pointed out in the Republican; though the Democrats did elect Hendricks Governor in 1872, they lost the rest of their State ticket, except one name, and the Republicans carried the State on the Congressional vote, choosing the two members at large, whereas the whole Democratic State ticket is chosen now by a majority of over 5,000 for the lowest, and the Democrats have about 7,000 majority on the Congressional vote. Furthermore, Hendricks is several thousand votes stronger than "Blue Jeans" Williams, and the sentiment of State pride will help the Presidential ticket in the State where the Vice-Presidential candidate lives, and the Cooper and Carey ticket will draw twice as many greenbackers from the Republicans as the Democrats, most of the soft money men in the latter party being so perfectly satisfied with Hendricks' position on this question that they will swallow any dissatisfaction they may feel at Tilden's. If Ohio, giving a Republican candidate for Secretary of State 5,700 majority in October, is sure for Hayes by 15,000 to 25,000, as every fair-minded man admits, Indiana, giving a Democratic candidate for Governor 5,494 in October is equally sure for Hendricks and Tilden by the 20,000 majority Hendricks promises. And it is evident enough, from the way the Republican leaders have renewed the fight in the State, that they will do it for the sake of appearances, and are utterly hopeless as to the result.

A good many Republican papers make Connecticut a doubtful State, while calling New Hampshire a Republican one. We have no doubt the latter classification is correct, but, if New Hampshire, which gave the Democratic candidate for Governor a plurality of 1,465 on the popular vote in 1875, and but 281 Republican majority in the Congressional vote in 1875, is sure for Hayes, Connecticut must be set down as certain for Tilden, with her uniform and strong Democratic majorities for the last three years. New Jersey is certainly as sure a Democratic State as Wisconsin is a Republican one; the latter State, though giving Grant 18,115 majority in 1872, elected a Democratic Governor the next year, by 15,411 majority, and the whole Democratic ticket except Governor in 1875, while New Jersey, though only giving Grant a majority of 14,810 in 1872, elected a Democratic Governor in 1874, by 13,233 majority. Perhaps California and Oregon are the two States in the Tilden column most likely to be transferred to the other side. Both gave Grant majorities in 1872—California 13,302, and Oregon 4,065—each gave a very slender Democratic majority last year, California 435 over the Republican and Independent vote combined, and Oregon 267 for a Democratic Congressman. But all the most intelligent testimony from there now claims or yields their votes to the Democratic candidates. But Hayes may be given both California and Oregon, along with South Carolina, which latter State is at least equally liable to go the other way, and he still has but 173 to Tilden's 161. New York on the Hayes side elects the Republican candidate, on the other side, makes Tilden the next President. It is there that the contest is to be fought and decided. The rest of the States are simply going through the motions to already settled results.

COMPARE THE TWO MEN.—Can any reasonable man believe that Hayes is as fit for the executive duties of the Presidency as Tilden? Hayes was a cipher in Congress. He has never put forth an original political idea. Those who know him best do not venture to accredit him with executive talent, though they may grant that he is kind and amiable. As Governor of Ohio, he is so hedged about by constitutional restrictions that he is little more than a figure-head. He has in no respect moulded the present canvass in his behalf. His backers, as also those who put him up as a Presidential candidate, are far stronger men than he, and they naturally pay no regard to the opinions, such as they are, of the plastic Hayes. He talked of civil service reform in his letter of acceptance. He would be as powerless to carry it into effect against men like Morton, Blaine, Chandler and the Camerons as a child to make a breach in a fortress. Hayes' record is that of a feeble, uncertain man, good of heart, perhaps, but muddy of head.

Tilden, on the contrary, is a man whose professional advice has been sought, prized and followed by a generation of the ablest practical men of the country. He is familiar with our whole political history, and has, since he reached manhood, been a prominent actor in it. Finance, taxation, the limit of the power of the Government, and the duties of an executive officer have been the subjects of his life-long study. As Governor of New York he has made his ideas and influence felt throughout legislation, and can point to a vastly reduced taxation as the fruit of his labors. Governor Tilden has left his mark on this State, and he would leave it on the national Government. He is a man of rare executive capacity and of backbone, with definite conceptions of his political duties, and the will, the astuteness and the intellectual vigor to carry them out.

Nobody who compares Hayes and Tilden fairly on their record can fail to conclude that the Republican candidate is a mere shadow beside the Democratic.—N. Y. Sun, Oct. 17th.

What is Meant by Ordering Troops to the South.

In Louisiana there is a considerable body of Republicans, black as well as white, who mean to vote for Hayes and Nichols—Mr. Nichols being the Democratic candidate for Governor. In South Carolina there is a large and increasing number of Republicans who mean to vote for Hayes and Hampton. In the same way, last Fall there were numerous Republicans in Mississippi who voted against Ames, but for Republican Congressmen. That is to say, a constantly increasing number of Republican voters in these, as well as in other Southern States, being tired of the corruption and mal-administration practiced by their local party leaders, refuse to support the local ticket, though they mean to vote the national ticket of their party. It is this split which threatens Packard in Louisiana and Chamberlain in South Carolina with the overthrow which befell Ames in Mississippi last Fall, and as Ames called for Federal troops to help him in his extremity, so Chamberlain now prepares to follow his example. The object of thus sending Federal soldiers into one of these Southern States is threefold. They are used, as by Packard, to intimidate Democrats. Their presence at the same time helps to arouse and organize the most ignorant part of the negro vote. But, finally, their most important use in such a state of things as we have describbed is to discourage and cripple the efforts of the opposition Republicans. The mass of colored voters in a State like South Carolina have a disposition to follow the possessor of power. They believe in the superior power and strength of the Federal Government; if they see that at Mr. Chamberlain's request General Grant sends troops to act under Chamberlain's orders, argument and appeal are alike useless to persuade them to vote against Chamberlain.

Observe, therefore, the troops are used to re-elect Chamberlain: that is the object. They were used to elect Kellogg in Louisiana. Packard hopes to use them to elect himself; Ames asked for them to re-elect himself; and not getting them was beaten, and promptly resigned and removed from the State. Can the Republican party hope to succeed if it thus misuses its possession of Federal power to keep in their places corrupt or inefficient State officers to coerce, not Democrats alone, but independent Republicans, and drive them back into the support of corrupt men, or cripple their efforts to relieve themselves and their State of such control?

Good Prospect.

The prospect of the Democratic party is becoming brighter every day. We do not think the result will depend on the solitary vote of any of the smaller States. The Democracy will achieve a victory that will amaze the corrupt concoctors of conspiracy at Washington, and paralyze the outstretched arm of tyranny. The people are thoroughly aroused and determined to make a change, and the result will demonstrate that there is a deep-seated conviction in the popular mind that it is high time for honesty to rule in places of public trust, and peace to prevail over all the land. Reconciliation and Reform have asserted their power as watch-words of the contest, and under this sign the hosts of Tilden and Hendricks are marching on to Washington, there to install civic virtue and moral power, where for so long a period have ruled profligacy, peculation, and the emblems of tyranny, the sword and bayonet.

In every precinct of this city and in every county of this State, the cause is constantly gaining strength, and the assurance of a victory is daily become stronger. The Radicals are coming to the conclusion that they have but slight show, and their chief organ in this city has already sounded the tocsin of terror, and is presaging defeat to its party. The camp of the enemy is in internal commotion, and there is quarreling among the leaders of a despondent army. Accusations of imbecility and waste of funds are made openly, and the bread-and-butter brigade refuse to bleed any more, after having put up so much coin already for a lost cause.

The bean-and-bacon boys in blue, the Invincibles and the veteran lunch-foragers are growing gaunt and hungry and are already in a state of mutiny. The interior is enthusiastic for Tilden and the spirits of the Radical chiefs are drooping, because they perceive the impossibility of saving the State's six votes. In Nevada and Oregon, we learn the prospect is equally encouraging to Democrats, and these three Pacific Coast States are to be no longer classed among "doubtful" States, but may be calculated upon as sure in the Electoral College to vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

Here we have twelve solid votes to add to Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Indiana, all certain to join with the "solid South" in restoring to the country the blessings of good government, peace and prosperity, and to save the Republic lately standing on the brink of the abyss of ruin.—S. F. Examiner.

Its Fate is Sealed.

In an article referring to the October elections, the New York Herald remarks:

Well, it has failed them. Substantially their campaign with the "bloody shirt" is a defeat. It was a desperate enterprise, set on foot by the anti-reform wing of the party, which assumed command and had its own sweet will in the campaign. It was the plan of battle of the Chandlers, Mortons, Logans, the "war horses" of the Republican side; and the subordinate leaders, not even excepting poor Mr. Schurz, at the last, fell obediently into line and fought it out, and subsequently got beaten. Undoubtedly they deserved it; but will it teach the Republican party no lesson?

Two courses are now open to the Republicans. They may go on as they have begun, or they may at once and finally cast off the "bloody shirt" and base their appeal to the people on distinct pledges of reform and good government. If they have the courage to do the last they have still a hope of success; for there is no doubt that while there is a universal demand for "a change" a considerable part of the voters would prefer this "change" to come about under Republican Federal rule. If the reform wing of the party should now come forward and take possession of the party machinery, vigorously and decisively inspire its councils and efforts, and shake off the Southern demagogues like Kellogg, Packard, Spencer and Chamberlain; if they should proclaim good will and cut loose from the authors and supporters of notorious abuses at Washington and in the South, then they have still a chance of success. But if, on the other hand, as seems much more likely, the party goes on as it has begun, then it seems to us its fate is sealed. It will be compelled, in that case, to encourage still more its basest elements everywhere, and to proceed to extreme measures in the South in support of the rotten Republican leaders there. We may expect to see the President ordering troops into South Carolina, Louisiana and Mississippi, to back a notoriously corrupt crowd of political gamblers. This cannot now be done without arousing throughout the North a storm of alarm and indignation which will sweep the Republican leaders into deserved oblivion. If the party openly puts itself on the side of corruption and maladministration North and South, and misuses the Federal power to maintain its rotten adherents in power, then it will deserve to perish.

SEYMOUR ON THE STUMP.—Senator Boutwell made a speech in New York recently, and done about what all Radical speakers have done, claimed great honor to his party for having put down the war, and charged that the Democracy was opposed to the maintainance of the Union. The speech of Boutwell brought the old war-horse, Horatio Seymour, to his feet on a Democratic stage in Utica. Seymour was Governor of New York during the war. In his speech he handled the Radical Senator from Massachusetts without gloves. He showed that New York, a Democratic State under a Democratic Governor, furnished 22 per cent, of her voting population as volunteer soldiers, whereas Republican Massachusetts furnished but 17 per cent. He then reviewed the Congressional Districts of New York, showing that the Democratic districts of the State furnished a greater per cent. of soldiers for the Union army than did the Republicans. The old ex-Governor delivered one of the greatest speeches of the campaign, and it is having a most happy effect in the State of New York. He classed Tilden among the great statesmen of the age; declared him bold, independent, patriotic and honest.

WHAT MAY BE EXPECTED.—If for no other reason, Governor Tilden's masterly management of the financial affairs of his State ought to warrant his election as President. The man who had reduced the State debt over seven millions in the past year, and had crushed out the infamous Canal Ring, was able to cope with the national debt and with Washington Rings. Samuel J. Tilden's record as Governor of New York was a guarantee of better times during the next four years. Taxes would be reduced; rings would be broken; safe burglars would not be countenanced and their trial made a farce; corrupt private Secretaries and Whiskey Ring conspirators would share the fate of common felons; the soldiers would not be robbed by Belknaps, nor would such soldiers as Custer be insulted for telling the truth about the Belknaps; navy vessels would not be used as pleasure yachts, nor would such sailors as Porter be put on half pay for exposing corruption in the Navy Department. Methuselah Dix might continue his wordy speeches, but Governor Tilden's actions spoke louder than words.

Some of the Stealings of the Republicans.

THE REPUBLICAN CREDIT MOBILIER.

By means of the Credit Mobilier, $50,000,000 were stolen in the construction of the Pacific Railroad. Under the Acts of 1862 and 1864 the Union Pacific Road obtained 12,000,000 acres of land, and guaranteed bonds amounting to $27,000,000. Its assets, independent of the lands, amounted to $111,000,000. The total cost to the railroad company of the three construction contracts—Hoxie's, Ames' and Davis'—was $93,546,287; the total cost to the contractors was $50,720,958, making total profit to contractors, $42,825,328. Shares of this enormously profitable stock were distributed among prominent members of the House and Senate to aid legislation. Among those who had transactions in it were Dawes, Wilson, Scofield, Garfield, Logan, Harlan, Patterson, Colfax—all Republicans. The Republican House whitewashed them all, making scapegoats of Oakes Ames (Republican) and James Brooks, the only Democrat involved.

WHAT THE CARPET-BAGGERS HAVE STOLEN.

In 1865 the actual and adjusted debt of Alabama was $6,221,186. In 1872 its total debt and contingent liabilities amounted to $32,926,967; total increase, $26,705,781. The actual debt of Arkansas in 1865 was $4,527,879; its total debt and contingent liabilities in 1871 amounted to $19,751,265; total increase, $15,223,383. In 1865 the actual and adjusted debt of Florida was $1,307,617; in 1872 the total debt, actual and contingent, was $16,556,072; increase, $15,185,455. In 1865 the actual and adjusted debt of Georgia was $5,706,500; in 1872 the total debt, actual and contingent, was $38,618,750; increase, $32,912,250. The Democratic administration has since reduced its actual liabilities to $8,000,000 and brought its bonds, which at one time could hardly be sold any price, above par. In Louisiana the actual and adjusted debt was $13,357,999; the total debt and contingent liabilities in 1872 amounted to $41,864,473; increase, $28,506,474. In Mississippi the actual and adjusted debt in 1865 amounted to $919,767; in 1871 it was $2,284,216; increase, $1,367,449. In North Carolina the debt and liabilities amounted, in 1868, to $15,779,945; in 1872 to $34,887,467; increase in four years, $19,107,522. In South Carolina the actual and adjusted debt in 1865 was $13,038,964; the total actual and adjusted debt, in 1871, was $22,480,914; increase, $9,441,959. The actual and contingent debt of Tennessee, in 1863, was $26,777,347, and in 1872, $32,054,476; increase, $5,277,129. In Texas the actual and adjusted debt, in 1865, was $328,866; the total contingent and prospective debt, in 1872, was $12,954,887, being an increase of $12,629,621. The debt of Virginia increased from $41,000,000 in 1865 to $47,000,000 in 1871, the small increase being due to the short-lived power of the carpet-baggers. The total increase in the debt of the eleven Southern States, since the war, is $172,685,940.

LAND STOLEN FROM SETTLERS.

The total number of acres of public land bestowed in land-grants by Republican Congresses is 236,000,000; the total area given away is 294,758 square miles, a larger area than that of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Ohio and Indiana combined. The total area of all these States is only 256,200 square miles.

WHAT MR. WHEELER'S RAILROADS HAVE GOT.

The bonds issued to Pacific railroads by Republican Congresses which are now outstanding amount to $64,623,512; and the amount of interest paid by the United States, allowing for repayment by transportation of mails, etc., amounts to $25,171,013.

FOUR THOUSAND MILLIONS SPENT BY GRANT.

From March 4, 1789, to June 30, 1861, or 72 years, the entire net ordinary expenses of the Government were $1,581,705,195; from June 30, 1861, to June 30, 1875, or 14 years, they amounted, exclusive of the public debt, to $5,220,250,759. The net ordinary expenses in the ten years of peace since 1865 are $2,031,233,412. The total expenditures of the six years of President Grant's administration, ending with June 30, 1875, $4,008,438,461.

GRANT'S ARMY OF EMPLOYEES.

The number of civil employees under President Buchanan was 44,527; under Lincoln in 1863, when the war was at its height, 47,375; under Grant in 1869, 54,207; under Grant in 1873, 86,660; under Grant in 1876, 102,250.

FIVE MILLIONS OF DEFALCATIONS.

The amount of defalcations under President Grant's Administration has been, by postmasters, $373,371; by marshals, $249,260; by sundry public officers, $265,713; by collectors of internal revenue, $2,312,541; by navy officers, $623,208; by army officers, $784,553, etc., etc.; total number of defaulters, 649; total defalcations, $5,500,595.

Strong but Truthful.

Phylosopher Pickett recently delivered a speech before a mass-meeting of the Democracy of this city, wherein he used the following strong but truthful language:

"But the war was a godsend, or rather a devilsend, to these destructionists to afford a pretext for their intended violation of pledges. And what pledge made to the American people have they not violated? The whole history of the Republican party is one of violated pledges and injury to the country. They pledged themselves, when coming into power, to reform the civil service and other abuses practiced by the Democracy. They have a hundred-fold increased them. They pledged themselves to make no invasions of the rights of the States, and, especially, not to interfere with the institution of negro slavery in those where it was established. They have not only abolished that, at a dreadful cost to the whole country, but made citizens of those ignorant and otherwise unfitted black people, which latter, also, they pledged themselves not to do, even after the close of the war. They promised to better foster commerce, manufactures and agriculture. Look at the condition of all three to-day. They promised to preserve from speculators and monopolists the public domain, to be allotted to small settlers. They have dishonestly squandered the whole of this vast public trust, except untillable mountains and sterile plains—bestowing the same on such monopolists and speculators.

They promised to better regulate the currency and revenues. They have made them the worst managed on the globe. They promised to elevate the character of our Government abroad and cause greater respect to be paid by us to foreign nations. They have sunk the same almost beneath contempt in the eyes of the entire civilized world. They have, in fine, so lowered the standards of morality and gentility and debauched public sentiment as to temporarily blunt all sense of shame and love for truth and right in the hearts of millions of Americans, and made good the poet Byron's definition of a Democratic form of government—'An Aristocracy of Blackguards.' This is proven by that large support they have so long given to these blackguard and knavish managers of public affairs. But severe suffering, and worse impending, is, at length, compelling the masses to seek relief in a change of servant-rulers.

THROWS UP THE GAME.—Simultaneously with the collapse of Grantism in the West, remarks the Chicago Times, Tom Murphy, the ex-Collector of New York, and the Custom House "boss" and intimate of the President, throws up the game as too unpromising to delay farther, and has sold out his sumptuous brown stone front near Fifth avenue, New York. Had the prospects of the Grant party been first class he would have held on to his household goods, even though heavily mortgaged, and trusted to the chances of office to reimburse his election losses and the outlays he has made upon cottages to Grant at Long Branch. But in the eyes of the long-headed politicians the Grant game is at an end. The election of Tilden is a certainty, and the improvident are even now forced to take warning from his admirable letter and "live within their means." Recently the gorgeous parlors where Grant has been feted many a time, the rich sofas that he has reclined upon, the costly vases that he has seen with bewildered confusion, were knocked down to the vulgar herd who frequent second hand bonanzas. Ex-bosses may now be expected to retrench.—Examiner.

A CERTAINTY.—The Kansas City Times enthusiastically declares that the Fall elections have proclaimed the election of Tilden a certainty, and from this time on the campaign will be pressed merely for the purpose of swelling the condemnation of Grantism. Henceforward the question will not be, Who shall be our next President? But, What States can afford to stand aloof from the great movement for national regeneration? Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois are now as certain to go for Tilden as Indiana, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut were two weeks ago. "One touch of nature makes the whole world kin," and there is about as much nature in the protest of the Fall election against Grantism as anything that ever occurred in this country.

THE OUTLOOK FROM WASHINGTON.—A recent Washington dispatch to the Eastern press, but which was not sent to this coast, says: "The Administration and Republican leaders are utterly demoralized and depressed by the result in Ohio and Indiana, and with good reason. Practically, they stake the Presidency on these two States, and their whole plan of campaign was organized to carry them by decisive majorities, and thus through the moral influences of this projected success upon doubtful voters in close States, sweep the country next month.

The Military in Elections.

GRANT'S FALSE PROCLAMATION AND HIS DANGEROUS DESIGN.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

The President's proclamation, made for no true cause, misstating the clear and well understood facts in almost every paragraph, ordering the dispersion of an insurrection which does not exist, on pleas which are notoriously without foundation, and threatening to send to the State not only the regular army but the militia of the States, is surely too grave and dangerous an abuse of power to pass unnoticed by Northern voters. The clause of the Constitution, under which the President shelters himself and Governor Chamberlain, evidently supposes the Governor of a State to have attempted to put down disorders before he is entitled to call for Federal help. It supposes the emergency to be so serious that he would call the Legislature together for consultation before he appeals to Washington, if possible; and for this Mr. Chamberlain has had abundance of time. It supposes at least actual and notorious illegal combinations too powerful for him to put down; but there is not the least proof of any combination whatever, except one of the respectable people of the State to defeat Governor Chamberlain at the polls. There can be no plea even of resistance on the part of the rifle clubs, which are for the most part, if not entirely, legal and chartered organizations. Their members have submitted quietly to arrest, wherever they have been called on. The plain and disagreeable truth seems to be that the President of the United States has been led to abet Governor Chamberlain in an attempt to create a riot in South Carolina for the purpose of coercing the people to re-elect him.

It is impossible to believe that so serious and dangerous a misuse of power for partisan purposes will go unnoticed by the voters of the Northern States. Such acts, unless they are promptly condemned by the people, become precedents; and if the people of the United States should by their neglect allow such a precedent as this to become established it would hang as a menace over every election and would surely soon be misused in a manner to create general civil discord. No one pretends to doubt that the people of South Carolina have for many years suffered from public robbery and grave maladministration at the hands of men who used the ignorant negro vote to maintain themselves in power. At last, there, as in Arkansas and Alabama, even the negroes, or at least the more intelligent part of them, have become weary of misrule; at the same time, as in those other States, the Republican party has become divided, and one faction arrays itself against the party candidate. By this split the Democrats reasonably hope to profit and to carry the State. They are using their utmost efforts to do so, and they deserve the sympathy of every opponent of bad government in the North. But in this emergency, when natural causes give the friends of honesty a chance, the Federal power is invoked, and successfully, to step in to save Governor Chamberlain from a defeat which he deserves and which the public good demands. Surely that is not free or constitutional government. What would the people of New York have said if, when Tweed and his Ring were about to be overturned, these had been able to summon Federal troops and Federal Marshals to help them, and had procured a Presidential proclamation ordering the opponents of the Ring to disperse?

The Radical Game Exposed.

In the Telegraphic dispatches of the "Associated Press," in last evening's papers, are to be found these remarkable words: "The Administration hope by these means to carry three Southern States, and thus neutralize any loss in the North or West." The "means" referred to are the conclusions of the Cabinet to send troops to Louisiana and Mississippi, as well as South Carolina, and these three States are to be openly carried at the point of the bayonet, as an offset to the loss of Indiana.

We are at a loss which most to admire, the unblushing audacity of the idea or the boldness with which it is announced. Have we come to this, in a time of profound peace, under a so-called republican form of Government? Are a free people to be told by our Radical rulers "We intend to override the popular will, in a Presidential election, with the army, and make three States votes as we think proper?" Do the masses of our people intend to submit to this worse than Russian satrapy? Is this the government our forefathers left us—or is this all that is left of it? If it be the determination of our rulers to retain power, by calling in the army as a "ballot-stuffing" agent—if Radical misrule is to be perpetuated by force, and that too, openly and above-board, then we say, the sooner the people rise in their might, and hurl from power, this tyrannical despotism the better. If the citizens of one single State are deprived of their vote, by United States troops stationed around the ballot-box, we trust that a united West, North and South, will break up—by force, if necessary—as Cromwell did the Long Parliament—any legislative body which should presume to count such vote in the choice of a free people as to who should be their next President.

That the defeat in Indiana has driven the party in power to attempt this last act of tyranny and oppression, is too plain to be refuted, but whether it will be tamely submitted to is another and quite a different question. Let the people see to it, that the bayonet does not stab the heart of every freeman who loves his country. Let each State authority do its duty. It is our earnest conviction, that no act is too base—no device too cunning—no means too desperate, to be left untried in the approaching election, to retain our Radical rulers by fair means or foul; and that they are resolved that what votes will not do, bayonets shall.—Examiner.

Who is Hayes?

A reader of the Times makes this not very remarkable request: "Will you please inform me through your valuable paper who is the Republican candidate for President?"

The Republican candidate for the Presidency is Rutherford Birchard Hayes, of Ohio.

He is the man whom Cameron, the chief of the notorious Pennsylvania ring of official plunderers, caused to be nominated.

He is the man who, serving several terms in Congress, never lifted his voice in favor of reform, nor protested against the infamous practices of the Grant Administration.

He is the man who, in his letter of acceptance, endorses the Grant Administration and all its iniquities.

He is the man who, as Governor of Ohio for three terms, has never taken his first step in the direction of reducing the tax burdens borne by the people.

He is the man who wrote to Grant apologizing for a pretended criticism of the civil service.

He is the man who is charged with committing perjury in order to escape the payment of his just taxes.

He is the man who used his money and his influence to help along the outrageous crusade against the Germans and lager beer drinking.

He is the man who belongs to the secret order which proposes to prevent any foreign-born citizen from holding office.

He is the man who took four hundred dollars from a condemned soldier during the war, and has not yet accounted for it.

He is the man to help whose election Grant contributed a thousand dollars.

He is the man whom Zach Chandler is trying to elect by the use of money forced out of the employees in the Government departments.

He is the man to whom Carl Schurz referred in his Fifth Avenue address as not equal to the reform demands of the time.

And finally he is the pliant tool selected by the Grant gang to continue the present Administration, and the existing condition of things.

NEW YORK.—Said E. K. Apgar in a recent speech in New York city: "I have recently returned from a tour through the central and western counties of the State and I have been everywhere surprised and rejoiced too by the favorable condition of our canvass. In aggressiveness, energy and hopefulness, our people are far ahead of anything I have known in former years. In my capacity as Secretary of the Democratic State Committee I have been engaged, since my return, in looking over our correspondence for the past week, and I am here to-night to tell you that we are not merely going to carry New York, but that all the indications point to a larger majority than has ever been given to either party for ten years past. In an examination of six hundred letters, representing every portion of the State, not one has been found which does not report accessions from the other side and contain assurances of better results than ever before."

NEW YORK STATE.—Zach Chandler says that he intends to spend every cent of his campaign fund in New York. Mr. Chandler will waste it for nothing. All his corruption funds will weigh nothing as against Governor Tilden's political sagacity. Mr. Tilden knows the State of New York, and has known it since his boyhood. The people of New York know Governor Tilden, too; know what he has done against rings and in reducing taxation. They know Mr. Chandler, too, and between the two they have no difficulty in making a choice. The people of New York understand that Governor Tilden stands for himself and is the embodiment of Retrenchment and Refotm.

Rally! Rally! Rally!

The day for the election will soon come. The time for action is short. The story will soon be told. Results the most stupendous will depend upon what will be done. Prompted by the noblest impulses of our nature, to the supporters of Tilden, Hendricks and Luttrell we say, Rally! Rally!! Rally!!!

The success of our glorious cause will be more than a mere party triumph. It will be a triumph of economy over extravagance, purity over corruption, law over lawlessness, order over anarchy, statesmanship over pretence, ballots over bayonets, liberty over tyranny, and local self-government over centralization. It will lighten the burdens of taxation. It will give a better compensation to labor. It will increase the comforts of every home and fireside. It will build up an American navy. It will proclaim "equal and exact justice to all." It will grant "exclusive privileges to none." It will give us a Union founded on fraternal regard. It will increase the self respect of every true patriot. It will cause us to be more feared and respected abroad. Finally, it will save California from being deluged by a horde of Asiatics, by repealing the Burlingame treaty or modifying it to one for commercial purposes only. In support of such a cause each friend of reform should be in himself a host, and act as though the whole result were to depend upon himself. The prospect is cheering. The sky is brightening most gloriously. Let there be one more well directed fire along the entire line. Again we say, Rally! Rally!! Rally!!!

A Revolutionary Party.

What constitutes revolution? Is it obedience to law, or is it subversion of and overriding law? And if the latter, are not the acts of the President of the United States and the Governor of South Carolina in calling for and sending troops into a sovereign State of the Union contrary to law revolutionary? Clearly so. Chamberlain is a carpet-bagger, having no permanent interest in South Carolina, but desiring to be elected again as Governor of that State, so that he can still further plunder the people for his own enrichment. Grant is a usurper in that he has exercised powers not conferred upon him by law, but sent troops into a State of the Union contrary to law and for the purpose of defeating the will of the people at the approaching election. In this course they are sustained by the Radicals of the country. The reason of this is that they care more for party than for country. They would rather see voters kept away from the polls by bayonets, than that they should be allowed peaceably to vote for men of their own choice. But all this will react upon the party of corruption and military despotism. Even the ignorant darkies have decided in favor of reform in the Government, as well as the whites, and they will vote for the men of their choice hereafter. Grant ought to, and we trust will, be impeached. He is not fit to occupy the Presidential chair.

On to Victory.

With Indiana and West Virginia rescued from Republican control, and Ohio so nearly Democratic that we have fair hope that she will vote for Tilden and Hendricks in November, defeat is no longer possible. We lost Ohio by only one-half of one per cent., and solely on the temperance issue. In Nov., on the square issue of administration reform and reduction in taxation, we can carry the State. Tilden and Hendricks will be elected with or without Ohio, but it will be a great victory to wrest that noble State from Republican rule, and it can be done. New York is absolutely essential to the election of Hayes, and New York will give Tilden seventy thousand majority. All those persons who sat on the fence, waiting to see if the Democrats would carry Indiana, have come down, and on our side. We have already secured a gain of thirty-six electoral votes, and 25,000 popular votes over 1872 in the seven States that have voted this Fall. That these gains will be greatly increased in November is certain. The Republicans know it, and are already conscious of defeat.

An Earnest Appeal.—South Carolina appeals to the people of the North to assist her in overthrowing the military despotism of Grant and his supporters. An attempt is made to awe the citizens of that State by military power into voting for a succession of the Radical plunderers, and every freeman in the North is appealed to, as he loves liberty and country and the institutions bequeathed by his forefathers, to overthrow by the peaceful means of the ballot the despotic Administration at Washington; to prevent a continuance of the same by defeating Hayes and Wheeler on Tuesday next, and placing those tried and true patriots, Tilden and Hendricks, at the head of the Government. Voters, as you value your own liberty and the rights of freemen throughout the land, heed this appeal; and the voices of that oppressed people will go up as the voice of one man and shower blessings upon you.

Queer Justice.—In South Carolina the white Rifle Clubs have been compelled by Grant to give up their arms and disband; the colored men are allowed to retain their arms.

Register.—Voters, we again urge you to examine and see that your names are properly upon the Great Register, and if not have them placed there at once.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.
ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.

The two sons of the late Joshua R. Giddings have declared in favor of Tilden.

Charles Francis Adams says that "Tilden is himself a platform." Was more ever said of mortal man before?

Gov. Hendricks is confident that Indiana will go Democratic in November by 20,000.

The October State elections have demonstrated that the American people cannot be bought with their own money, embezzled by corruption and fraud on the part of their temporary rulers.

West Virginia was made a State for the purpose of adding to the Radical majority in the Senate; but she has gone out of that line of business and into reform.

The majority for Williams, Democrat, for Governor in Indiana, is 5,417. This is one of the States the Republicans claimed to have carried for days after the election.

Ben Butler says that the October elections have rendered Mr. Tilden's election "not impossible; nay, not improbable."

It was George William Curtis' commission that said about $100,000,000 of the public revenues were annually lost through the incompetence of Government officials.

So far seven States have held elections. The Republicans have carried four States with twenty-one electoral votes, and the Democrats three States with twenty-seven electoral votes. Democrats six ahead.

In New York, betting on the presidential ticket, says the N. Y. Tribune of Oct. 28th, is about $100 to $60 in favor of Tilden. There has been considerable devotion to close figures, the pools varying from Tilden $100, Hayes $60 to Tilden $500, Hayes $400. Upon State tickets betting has been almost uniformly even. Slight odds in favor of Robinson were offered on Wednesday at Morrissey's pool rooms.

It is a significant fact that while Democratic thieves like Tweed hate Tilden with an unfeigned hatred, Republican thieves like Belknap, Joyce and Babcock, love Hayes with an ardent affection and Hayes does not feel ashamed to have them openly advocating his election.

Atty. General Hamilton has given an opinion adverse to Holland's Black List. He says that irregularities by the clerk in working up the Great Register is no ground of challenge. Gov. Irwin, Ex-Governor Haight, Senator Casserly, Sol Sharp and a number of other leading lawyers concur with him.

Senator West is at Washington asking for troops for Louisiana and Secretary Chandler is backing him. The Administration hopes by by the use of sodiers to carry three States in the South and thus make up for possble losses in the North.

At the municipal election in Baltimore for members of the first branch of the City Council, the Democrats elected their candidates in 18 of the 20 wards, reform candidates being elected in the First, and a Radical nominee in the Sixteenth Ward. The same branch in the last council stood 10 Democrats and 10 Radicals.

In pursuance of its plan to determine the election in South Carolina with batteries instead of ballot-boxes, the Grant-Cameron-Taft combination has ordered several companies of artillery from Ft. Mouroe and Ft. Adams to move at once on the enemy's works at Columbia.

The Truckee Republican, always a Republican paper, is supporting the Hon. G. J. Carpenter for Congress, against H. F. Page. The Republican, however, is strenuously supporting Hayes and Wheeler.

Gen. Hooker writes to Gen. McQuaid that the election of Tilden and Hendricks is necessary to establish and perserve harmony and good feeling between all sections of the country.

Wade Hampton is at Aiken advising the people to quietly submit to whatever the Government authorities do. If the U. S. soldiers are ordered to fire on the people, the latter must bare their breasts and be willing to die for their country's good.

Tilden and Reform—Hendricks and Reunion! By these signs we conquer. The skies are bright with promise.

Benjamin F. Butler, in his speech at Andover, Mass., on the 13th inst., said: "The elections of the past week show that there is to be a contest of the most determined character; a contest which is doubtful. I say it frankly, Mr. Tilden's election is not impossible; nay, not improbable."

John G. Thompson, Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee of Ohio, telegraphs that the Democracy of that State go into the Presidential fight confident of beating Hayes on his own ground. He thinks the electoral vote of Ohio will be cast for Tilden.

The New York Tribune tells the Republican managers and organs that the air of confidence they affect is not warranted by recent events. It adds that only the most stupendous work can prevent the election of Mr. Tilden.

The number of civil employes under Buchanan was 44,572; under Lincoln in 1863, when the war was at its height, 47,375; under Grant in 1869, 54,207; under Grant in 1873, 86,660; under Grant in 1876, 108,350.

Governor Allen says: I earnestly advise every Democrat in the State to vote for Tilden and work for him up to the last moment of the contest. In the existing state of things the triumph of the Republican party would turn over this great country to bankruptcy and anarchy, to the rule of the sword wielded by fools for the benefit of knaves.

The New York Tribune quotes the recent comments of Schurz to show the effect of the know-nothing charge against Hayes upon the "average Germans." Poor Carl! Once he was supposed to be a statesman in his own right and a power among his countrymen. Now he is only an "average German," even in the house of his friends.

Mr. Tilden may rely, with reasonable confidence, on the support of the "solid South." The Southern States have 138 electoral votes, and the Democratic party needs only 47 more to give it a majority. The Presidential contest is therefore narrowed down to the question whether Mr. Tilden can get 47 electoral votes in the twenty-three Northern States.

The Radical party to-day, according to Chas. Francis Adams, one of its founders, "is nothing more or less than a monstrous political organization kept in existence for the mere purpose of self-aggrandizement.

In four States, Vermont, Maine, Arkansas, and Alabama, all of which voted for Grant, the Republicans lost 120,000 votes at the late elections, or nearly one-quarter of the entire vote of both parties.

Chamberlain and Grant's pronunciamento, did not, as they were intended to do, fire the Democratic heart. The people are acting in such a quiet dignified manner under Republican efforts to "make them mad," that the Republicans are disheartened and feel like giving up the State as lost.

The Radicals who have been talking so much about the "solid South," says the Examiner, will soon have to talk about the "solid North," for the North is rapidly becoming solid against Radical corruption. The South is solid only on account of Radical rascalities.

The voice of the people exclaim with no uncertain sound: We must have a change. The men who are stealing our money, closing our work-shops, driving the honest mechanic, laborer, farmer and artisan to poverty, must be swept from office to make room for honest men. The Radical party has outlived its usefulness! A change must be had.

Not only will the bayonet policy gain for the Democracy hundreds of thousands of votes in the Northern States, but it will swell our majority in South Carolina and the other States in which it is enforced. So thinks the Examiner.

If Tiden be elected—in the first place, there will not be another war; nor a restoration of the Southern Confederacy; nor the re-enslavement of the negroes; nor a disfranchisement of the negroes; nor a repudiation of the national debt; nor a repeal of the constutional amendments; nor the payment of Southern claims; nor a crippling of the Government by excessive retrenchment.

How Far?

Editor Democrat:—Ours is a complex political system. We have one General Government for national purposes. We have thirty-eight State Governments for local purposes. From the simple fact that we are yet a free people it results that all those Governments are of limited powers. One Government cannot lawfully command what another may lawfully forbid. There cannot, therefore, rightly considered, be any such thing as a conflict of allegiance. States cannot constitutionally nullify a law of the United States or secede from the Union. The National Government cannot constitutionally destroy States, or meddle with any matter which pertains to their exclusive jurisdiction. There must, therefore, be a boundary line which separates national from State jurisdiction.

How shall we ascertain the limits which the Constitution has imposed upon national authority? Article X. of the amendments of the Constitution reads:

"The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

The foregoing section furnishes the rule of interpretation by which every claim of power on the part of the Government of the United States, or of any officer or department thereof, is to be tested. Does the question arise, "Can a given power be exercised by the United States?" That involves the further question, "Is it a power delegated to the United States by the Constitution?" Keeping in mind the foregoing rule of interpretation, I desire to call the attention of my readers to the peculiar phraseology of Article IV., Section 4, of the Constitution of the United States. The section in question reads:

"The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican form of Government, and shall protect each of them against invasion, and on application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence."

The foregoing section of the Constitution has afforded the pretext for extraordinary claims of power on the part of the National Government. I am not aware that an army has ever been sent into a State under the pretext of protecting it "against invasion." The "form of Government" which a State has depends on its Constitution. Has any State in the Union ever adopted a Constitution providing for a monarchical or aristocratic form of Government? No. There has, therefore, been no cause for Federal interposition on that ground. In reference to the clause under consideration, Judge Story says: "But the authority extends no further than to a guarantee of a Republican form of Government, which supposes a pre-existing Government of the form which is to be guaranteed. As long, therefore, as the existing Republican forms are continued by the States, they are guaranteed by the Federal Constitution. Whenever the States may choose to substitute other Republican forms, they have a right to do so, and to claim the Federal guarantee for the latter. The only restriction imposed on them is that they shall not exchange Republican for anti-Republican Constitutions."

Is there "domestic violence" within a State? Unless it assumes formidable dimensions, indeed, it can be put down by State authority. But I will suppose that it can not. What then? Who is to call for Federal aid? The Governor of such State? Not unless "the Legislature cannot be convened." The only means a Governor has of knowing that a "Legislature cannot be convened," is by using his best efforts to convene it and failing. Has there been the least difficulty in convening a Legislature in any State of the South? Has any Southern Governor made an honest effort to accomplish that object and been unable to accomplish it? Has any Governor ever made an official proclamation to that effect to President Grant? No such thing will be pretended. He has not, therefore, had a shadow of authority for sending a military force into South Carolina, Louisiana or Mississippi. Every good citizen should be careful to sustain every reasonable exercise of lawful authority. Every friend of liberty should promptly oppose all usurpations and usurpers. Grant has been guilty of numerous usurpations in the dispositions he has made of the military forces of the United States since he has been President. Last but not least in the dark catalogue is the present employment of armed forces in South Carolina. The motive in which his usurpations have their origin is disclosed in a dispatch to the Record-Union of October 25th, in the words following:

"Louisiana Applying for Troops.—Chicago, Oct. 24th.—The Times' Washington special says: Senator West has arrived from Louisiana, and, in company with Secretary Merrill and Secretary Chandler, had an interview with Don Cameron. The object of the conference was the securing of an order for a large transfer of troops to Louisiana, as has been done in South Carolina. West thinks the State can be carried for Hayes if several thousand soldiers can be sent to that State to work with the Deputy Marshals in controlling the elections," On West's representation, Chandler advised that a similar order be issued as had been sent to South Carolina. An early report of the outrages in Louisiana is expected, so as to form the basis for a proclamation and transfer of troops. It is expected that the additional troops needed will be taken from Phil. Sheridan's department. A similar formality will be observed in Mississippi as soon as this Louisiana matter is disposed of. The Administration hopes by this use of soldiers to carry three States of the South, and so make good the possible losses in the North."

Such, it seems, is Grantism! Can such things be tolerated? Are soldiers enlisted as mere political partisans? Shall a party in power be permitted to employ military force to carry elections? Will not the American people administer a fitting rebuke?

JAMES JOHNSON.

Sustained.—All the State officers of Kentucky, Tennessee and other Southern States sustain and endorse Governor Tilden's position in regard to the payment of the Southern war claims. It cannot be done, and no one expects it to be. It is talked about by the Radicals for effect—nothing more.

Edwin Booth.—Quite a number of our citizens are visiting Sacramento to witness the acting and rendering of this great tragedian, who ranks as the very highest of his profession.

Trustees' Sale.

WHEREAS, GEORGE J. LUCE, WM. H. LUCE, JOHN E. AGER and L. D. KELLY, doing business in the firm name of LUCE BROTHERS & CO., on the first day of November, 1875, made, executed and delivered to the PACIFIC PNEUMATIC GAS COMPANY, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of California, their two certain Promissory Notes, each for the sum of four thousand dollars in U. S. gold coin, bearing date November 1st, 1875, and drawing interest at the rate of one per cent. per month, from date, one of which became due and payable four months, and the other one year from the date thereof. And whereas, in pursuance of an agreement made on the said 1st day of November, 1875, between said Luce Brothers & Co. and the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company, there has been transferred and assigned to me two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of California, in trust as a security for the payment of said promissory notes; and whereas by said agreement I was authorized, empowered and directed, in case of a default in the payment of either of said promissory notes, to sell at public auction in the manner prescribed by said agreement, so many shares of said capital stock as should be necessary to pay the amount due thereon, on demand of the said Pneumatic Gas Company. And whereas default has been made in the payment of the said promissory note that became due one year from its date; and whereas the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company has demanded such sale—Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Trustee as aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given that I will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, in U. S. gold coin, on FRIDAY, THE 17TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1876, at one o'clock P. M., at the Court House door, in the town of Woodland, two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, or so many shares thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the sum of $4,000, in U. S. gold coin, with interest thereon at the rate of one per cent. per month from the 1st day of November, 1875.

The Yolo Democrat.

Thursday, November 2, 1876.

Town and County Matters

Our Campaign Offer.

We propose to those who are not taking the DEMOCRAT and desire to do so, to receive subscriptions at the regular price, payable when Tilden and Hendricks are elected President and Vice-President of the United States. We have this much faith in the success of our nominees and the pure principles they represent. The DEMOCRAT will be up with the times in all that pertains to the campaign now opened, and will at the same time keep its readers posted upon the local and general news of the day. All who want the paper are invited to send in their names on this proposition.

Naturalization.

Judge Bush will hear applications for naturalization at the Court House each Wednesday and Saturday at 1 P. M., from now till election day.

LAST GRAND RALLY!

MASS MEETING

—AND—

TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION

The Democracy of Yolo county will assemble at Woodland on Saturday next for one more grand rally in favor of Tilden, Hendricks and Reform.

Eminent speakers will be present—Gov. Irwin, Gen. Jo Hamilton, Judge Archer, Col Stuart Taylor and Hon. C. T. Ryland are announced and will address the people.

Speaking will commence at four o'clock and continue throughout the evening.

A grand torchlight procession will parade the streets as follows:

PROGRAMME OF PROCESSION.—Those intending to march in procession will assemble on the College ground at 6½ o'clock sharp. Let everyone be on hand promptly. The procession will be ready to march at exactly 7 o'clock, and will proceed along Lincoln Avenue to Fourth Street, along Fourth Street to Main Street, thence along Main Street to Clark's Stable, thence countermarch to Exchange Hotel, thence re-countermarch to the grand stand.

Order of procession:—1st, Marshal; 2d, Flag; 3d, Pacific Band; 4th, procession with Assistant Marshals in center, alternating with transparencies. The Winters Band will also have a position in the procession.

We urge upon all lovers of good government to turn out on this occasion and let us give a grand demonstration in favor of Tilden, Hendricks and Reform. Torches will be supplied for four hundred bearers. Let every lover of honest administration carry a torch.

SUPERVISORS.—On Tuesday next there are to be elected two Supervisors in Yolo county, one in the Third and one in the Fifth District, in the place of J. C. Smith in the former and S. N. Mering in the latter. Both these gentlemen are candidates for re-election. Opposed to them are John Byrns in the Third District and James McHenry in the Fifth, both of whom are men of sterling worth and good judgment—just the kind of men for Supervisors. The Third District has always been Democratic, but by some means Mr. Smith, succeeded upon the death of his predecessor, Mr. E. Roberts, in being elected. The nomination was then tendered to Mr. Byrnes by the Democrats, but for some reason was not accepted. Now, however, there is no dissension in the district, and we have no doubt Mr. Byrns will succeed by at least the old time majority of 50 to 60. In the Fifth District the fight will be a hard one, as it has always been Republican. At the last election in that District, however, Mr. Marders was beaten by about a dozen votes by Mr. Mering. The latter is even more unpopular now than then, and this fact, together with McHenry's popularity with the people, may give the latter the election. We will hope so, at least. These are the only local officers to be elected in the county at this election.

EFFECTS OF THE RAIN.—Mother earth has assumed her comfortable Winter garb of emerald green, delighting the eye with its calm beauty. The air is pure and clear, allowing an uninterrupted view of the snow-capped Sierras a hundred miles to the eastward, and of Mount Scott in the coast range to the northwest in a similar garb, while a hundred miles to the southward looms up Mt. Diablo, blue and sombre. The ground being now in splendid condition for plowing and harrowing, farmers are taking advantage of it to get in their seed wheat for next year's crop. Many have already sown their Summer-fallow land. "Volunteer," which it was feared was injured by being sprouted too soon by the first rains, is now safe from that danger. Feed is getting up nicely, and if warm weather continues will soon be sufficient for stock. We have reason to be thankful that the season opens so auspiciously.

ANONYMOUS.—Anonymous communications are frequently received by us and as often find their way into the scrap basket. This is the only course we can consistently or safely pursue. Such an one has come to hand this week, the matter of which is not particularly objectionable, but if we are not worthy of the confidence of our correspondents certainly they cannot complain if we refuse their productions a place in the DEMOCRAT. We alone are responsible for whatever appears in its columns, and, as we have many times before stated, cannot publish communications unless we know their author.

NOT SO.—It is not true that hoodlums attempted to create a row at a Republican meeting as stated by the Mail, nor that they disturbed the meeting in any way, if we are correctly informed. What was done that grieves the Mail is this: After the meeting was adjourned some Democrats cheered lustily for Tilden and Hendricks, as they had a perfect right to do if they felt disposed. Tell the truth, neighbor, for truth will prevail whether you tell it or try to hide it.

EXCURSION—DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—There will be a Democratic Mass Meeting at Knights Landing this evening, Nov. 2d, when Gen. Jo Hamilton, W. M. De Witt, Esq., and County Superintendant H. B. Pendegast will address the people in favor of Tilden, Hendricks and Reform. An excursion train will leave Woodland at 6 P.M. and return after the speaking. Jones' Pacific Band has been engaged. Let us fill up the train.

LAST CHANCE.—As this is the last issue of the DEMOCRAT before election, we would remind all whose names are not upon our lists already that our "campaign offer" at the head of the local columns remains good up to the night before election day. Friends, if the proposition suits you, hand in your names.

COMPLAINTS.—Democrats are complaining that the Supervisors have allowed a majority of Republicans on most of the Election Boards of the county. We were not aware that this was so in many instances until our attention was called to it. It shows a necessity for earnest vigilance and watchfulness on the part of Democrats all over the county.

AUCTION SALE.—Mr. A. G. Read, auctioneer, will sell for G. W. Oliver, Esq., on Monday next, Nov. 6th, at 10 A. M., on the Joseph Gibson ranch, four miles west of Woodland, a fine lot of horses, wagons, farming implements, etc.

FINE CIGARS.—Our new caterer in the cigar line, Mr. C. E. St. Louis, treated all the smokers of this office with samples of his new stock of cigars when first opened. They pronounced them elegant.

Col. George and Major Biggs.

The weather was such last Saturday night that these gentlemen, who filled the appointment for public speaking, held forth in Central Hall, which was well filled before the time of commencement. District Attorney Baker was elected Chairman of the meeting, after which Major Biggs talked in his well known enthusiastic style for an hour, arraigning the Administration for its corruptions and advising every voter who desires to better his condition and that of his countrymen to do all he possibly could to secure the election of Tilden and Hendricks for our next President and Vice-President. Col. George was then called for and immediately responded. After being introduced to the audience, Mr. George said he felt more like having a quiet talk with the people than he did like making a regular speech, and if the Chairman and the ladies and gentlemen present had no objection he would step down close to them, for he felt like getting very near to the people at this critical moment; and he did step down and pace back and forth close to his auditors while he talked to them—talked of the condition of our country with an earnestness which showed that his whole soul was in his subject; and his arguments were so clear and convincing that not a point could be gainsayed or disputed. Our republic was shown to be in peril, because of the corruption and dishonesty of the chosen servants of the people. We were disgraced as a nation by the President's usurpations of power and unlawful and unnecessary interference with the affairs of sovereign States, as in Louisiana heretofore and as now in the case of South Carolina; also by that high functionary's San Domingo job and his defence of the guilty Belknap—not to mention his shameless gift-taking and many other matters of which the people justly complain. The country had also been put to shame in the eyes of the world by such iniquities on the part of those in power as the Emma Mine disgrace; the Belknap villainies; the back-pay steals; the Navy Yard frauds; the secret service swindle, the Credit Mobilier iniquity; the enormous robbery of the people in granting the public domain to railroads and other corporations; the lavish expenditure of the people's money; the high protective tariff of the Republican party, which was the means of enriching the few manufacturers of the country at the expense of the poor consumers; the exemption of the rich land-holder from taxation, while this exemption is added to the already heavy burden of the laboring and producing classes. Besides these things, there were whisky rings and many other combinations to defraud the people for which the Republican party was either directly or indirectly responsible; in fact the condition of the country is so bad that the only resort of the people is to kick the corrupt horde of office-holders from the positions they have disgraced and put honest men in their places. Mr. George addressed himself particularly to the laboring men of the country, in whose welfare he felt a deep interest—not as a partisan, but as one who, seeing the danger ahead, desires to warn them, so that they may know how to escape it. This was one of the very best meetings of the campaign; it was one that we feel sure did good in the cause of Reform. The meeting broke up with hearty cheers for the speakers and for Tilden and Hendricks. The Jones Band enlivened the occasion with patriotic music.

Yolo County Know-Nothings.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—I believe that all the native-born leaders of the Republican party in this county were ancient, original Know-Nothings. They are now Presidents and officers of Republican Clubs—they fill the offices. In President Filmore's time they were loud-mouthed Know-Nothings; their vociferations could be heard for a mile, boldly proclaiming their intolerant and exclusive national policy in the streets, highways and cross roads throughout the county, as their party adherents in the State and Nation did during that canvass. They taught from the stump everywhere that only native-born "Americans shall rule America," and made their Presidential canvass and fight on that platform altogether.

Their doctrine was to exclude all foreigners from naturalization and American citizenship, and from the right to vote or hold any office whatever under our Government. If they had carried the election and established their principles they would have enforced that Governmental policy, of course, up to this day, if they could; but happily, the old Democratic party, always true to the people and the genius of Republican Government and principles, set their seal of condemnation upon the fanatic purpose, and by a great uprising defeated the Republican-Know-Nothing movement ingloriously, and killed the demon dead for the time.

Since then our ports and our arms have been wide open to welcome the foreigner to this land of freedom and plenty; and since that time there has been a constant flow of emigration of the Caucasian races to our land from other countries, and the accession of worthy, useful citizens from that source has been greater than ever before in our history, and they have helped build up and develop our whole country. The Republican-Know-Nothings having met with a disastrous checkmate at the hands of the Democrats gave confidence to foreigners, and excited an impulse to emigrate to our country.

All these new-found friends of the foreigner can say, or do say against Democrats is, that the party was disloyal in the late rebellion. Now, it is a truth that cannot be gainsayed, that at least two-thirds of the Union army was made up of Democrats, North and South, and Union foreigners, with Democratic Generals. What would have become of our Union and nation if we had had to depend upon the Know-Nothing-Republicans? H.

THE GRAIN MARKET.—The local wheat market remains unsettled, probably in consequence of the European war question being in the same condition, much depending upon the way that turns. Our buyers are paying $1.55 per cental for prime shipping. The Mark Lane Express, as reported by telegraph Oct. 30th, contained the following, which indicates an advancing market:

"There has been better weather during the past week, and in the north the remainder of the outstanding crops has been mostly gathered. The condition of the crops is deplorable. In many districts barley and oats were hardly worth carting, and the grass was so sodden as to have lost much of its nourishing properties. Reports of the potato blight are gloomy. The disease as yet is confined to a few English and Scotch districts, but it is feared it will extend to Ireland. Fine dry weather is greatly needed for potatoes and for sowing wheat, a considerable acreage of which has been sown during the past week. Holders of wheat remain very firm, and millers buy reluctantly; but they are by no means satisfied that an advance in prices is improbable. Local trade has been quiescent, with a moderate consumptive demand. Wheat has without difficulty maintained previous prices. Maize, flour and feeding stuffs are unchanged. Arrivals off the coast have been very limited. California cargoes on passage have declined lightly from the highest point, but a firmer feeling has been shown latterly.

MONOPOLY CANDIDATES.—Hayes and Wheeler have each proved by their record while in Congress that they favored monopolies on every occasion where an opportunity presented. Hayes voted for all the land grants and subsidies before Congress while he was a member and accepted the back-pay steal which he had previously voted against allowing, thereby acknowledging to the world that he was taking what he knew he ought not to and had no right to—commonly called stealing. Wheeler was the particular champion of the railroad lobbyists, and engineered the Goat Island grab. Neither will do to trust. They are in these respects, both of them, notoriously corrupt.

OHIO, DEMOCRATIC.—On the popular vote for Congressman, in Ohio, the Democrats prove to have had a majority of just one hundred and seventy-nine votes. If, as in the Presidential election will be the case, these votes had all counted, every Democratic candidate for Congress would have been elected. In voting for President they will all count, and consequently we have a right to claim Ohio for Tilden. Indiana gave nearly 8,000 Democratic majority on the Congressional vote.

BALLOTS.—Every voter should read his ticket all the way through before he deposits it in the ballot-box. The names of the Democratic candidates to be voted for appear at the head of this paper.

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Duties of Inspectors and Judges of Election, and Rights of Registered Citizens.

To the Inspector and Judges of Election of .... Precinct:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to transmit to you, through the County Clerk of your county, the subjoined opinion of the Attorney-General, touching your duties as election officers, and the rights of persons whose names are on the Great and Ward Registers to vote. This opinion is communicated to you for your information touching your duties as officers of election.

You will observe that it asserts:

First—The right of every person whose name is on the Great or Ward Register of his county or ward, TO BE EXEMPT FROM ALL CHALLENGES, except on the grounds specified in Section 1,230 of the Political Code, quoted at length in the opinion.

Second—The duty of the Board of Election to receive and place in the ballot-box the vote of EVERY PERSON OFFERING THE SAME, WHOSE NAME IS ON THE GREAT OR WARD REGISTER, unless it shall be rejected on one or more of the challenges provided for in Section 1,230 of the Political Code.

The opinion also very properly calls the attention of election officers to the penalties provided in the Penal Code for a neglect or refusal on the part of such officers to discharge their duties.

It is only necessary to add, that the undersigned believes it will be sufficient to call the attention of election officers to their duties under our election law to secure a faithful discharge of those duties.

WILLIAM IRWIN, Governor.

Accompanying the Governor's proclamation, in the same circular, are the instructions of Attorney-General Hamilton to Inspectors of Election, prescribing their duties under the laws of the State, which will be vigorously enforced. The proclamation and instructions will be found in full at every polling place. Among the instrctions are the following:

"In all the details and incidents of the election the Judges are to be governed by the State law, and are not subject to the control, direction or interference of any official, whether State or Federal.

They are not permitted to entertain a challenge to a voter on any ground whatever, except for one or all of the following causes. (Political Code, sec. 1,230.).

1st. That he (the voter) is not the person whose name appears on the Register.

2d. That he has not resided within the State for six months next preceding the election.

3d. That he has not resided within the precinct for thirty days next preceding the election.

4th. That he has before voted that day.

5th. That he has been convicted of a felony, and has not been pardoned.

When, therefore, any voter's name is found on the Great Register, or Ward Register, and the vote is not rejected or a challenge taken on one or the other of the above grounds the Judges must place the ballot, without being opened or examined, in the ballot-box.

In case of citizens of foreign birth, the fact that the time and place of their naturalization is not stated on the Great or Ward Register is no proof or presumption that they are not citizens of the United States, and this is especially true in cases when it appears from the Register that such persons have been transferred from other counties.

The alleged falsity or insufficiency of any entry on the Great or Ward Register is no ground of challenge."

The circular, which is too long for us to publish entire, is signed by Attorney-General Jo. Hamilton, to which is added the following:

"We have read the foregoing opinion of Attorney-General Hamilton, and concur in the views expressed therein, H. H. Haight, John S. Hager, Eugene Casserly, J. P. Hoge, McAlisters & Bergin, Sol. A. Sharp, John R. Jarboe, S. M. Wilson, Joseph Napthaly, John T. Doyle, John C. Burch, J. B. Lamar, W. W. Cope, James Thos. Boyd, Wm. Blanding."

Change of Business Firm.

S. T. PENDEGAST, having bought the interest of H. B. Pendegast in the Woodland Boot and Shoe Store, wishes to inform his friends and the public generally that he has restocked the above store and now has on hand the best selected stock of Men's, Women's and Children's Boots and Shoes ever brought to this market, which were bought for cash, and will be sold cheaper than ever before in Woodland.

He has also added a complete line of Gents' Furnishing Goods, to which he would call especial attention. Also, Men's and Boys' Hats of the latest styles, Trunks, Valises, Gloves, etc., all of which will be sold very cheap.

Give us a call and convince yourselves. Everything sold guaranteed as represented.

ROORBACKS.—The Associated Press dispatches sent by telegraph have for some time past been misrepresenting the state of public sentiment at the East in order to help the failing prospects of the Radical party on this coast and elsewhere. It quotes from the New York Times, Chicago Tribune and other like Radical sources, giving only a distorted and one-sided view. Democratic papers received a week later invariably tell a very different story. If, as a bearer of news, the Associated Press gave both sides, no one would complain. Reader, look out for this kind of news from now till election. It is a Radical concern and palms off Radical falsehoods for news.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The annual Teachers' Institute for Yolo county will be held at the Court House, commencing on Wednesday Nov. 8th. The programme will be found in our advertising columns.

NORTH WIND.—A light, cool north wind has prevailed the last few days. This season has been remarkable for absence of the usual amount of north wind.

The Word "Sozodont,"

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and composed of two words, Sozo and Odontes. "Sozo" translated, means to preserve, and "Odontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers.

Iron in the Blood.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP vitalizes and enriches the blood, tones up the system, builds up the brokendown, cures Dyspepsia, Debility, Dropsy, Chills and Fevers, Chronic Diarrhœa, Nervous Affections, Boils, Humors, Diabetes, etc. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

A 32-page pamphlet, containing a history of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, a valuable paper on progress in medical science, a treatise on iron as a medical agent, testimonials from distinguished physicians, clergymen and others, will be sent free to any address. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Proprietors, 83 Harrison Ave., Boston. Sold by dealers, generally.

From R. Fellows, M.D., of Hill, N. H.

Although I have generally a great objection to patent medicines, I can but say in justice to DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY that it is a remedy of superior value for Pulmonary diseases.

I have made use of this preparation for years, and it has proved to be very reliable and efficacious in the treatment of severe and longstanding Coughs. I know of one patient, now in comfortable health, who has taken this remedy, and who but for its use, I consider, would not now be living.

R. FELLOWS, M.D.

THE season for coughs and colds is rapidly approaching, and everyone should be prepared to check the first symptoms, as a cough contracted between now and Christmas frequently lasts all winter. There is no better remedy than "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." For all diseases of the throat and lungs it should be used externally and internally.

WHAT a blessing to the poor would be such a wholesome purifier and preventative of contagion as GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, could it be distributed among them. Why don't some philanthropist act on this point.

Lung fever, common cold, catarrhal fever, and nasal discharge of a brownish color in horses, may be checked at once by liberal use of Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders.

Obituary.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Yardly, wife of James Yardly and daughter of Edward and Jane Dyer, all of Knights Landing, Yolo County, Cal., departed this life in peace on the 26th day of October, 1876, aged 32 years, 1 month and 7 days.

It has never fallen to our lot to attempt the portrayal of a life replete with more patience in suffering, unremitting Christian labors and fidelity to the church in which she was early dedicated to God, than that of her whose name heads this notice. Of the many excellent characteristics she possessed, none shone more conspicuously than those which shed their light upon the domestic circle. Her home was blessed with order, brightened with cheerfulness, hallowed with piety, and sweetened with enjoyments. To her husband she was like some heavenly star shining upon the pathway of life, for she shared his cares, soothed his sorrows, studied his interests and sweetened his retirements by a winning tenderness and wealth of affection with which she habitually adorned herself. It is to be hoped that her husband, in his loss and bereavement will trust in the same God and emulate the virtues of his dear companion, who, before dying, exclaimed "it is all right." In her protracted illness her patience and cheerful resignation shed a mild and lovely hue over the more brilliant aspects of her life, and as the setting sun on some cloudless day sends back a light that seems tinged with the golden hues of some other sphere, with which he softens his imperial sheen, so did the light of this lovely saint, slowly decending to the horizon of life, seem to blend its departing rays with "gleams from the morning-lit land."

The writer of this preached her funeral sermon from the text—"This year thou shalt die." Jer. 28-16. The large congregation in attendance under the most unfavorable circumstances, (as it rained very hard), was but another demonstration of the high esteem in which the character and virtues of this beloved woman were held. She leaves two children. We trust they are to fall under good influences and that they will be raised to adore the God of their mother and to meet her by and by.

God bless the afflicted friends and family; for, verily, this year we may die too.

L. H. MEAD.

A Card.

I learn that the impression has been made away from here that I have sold out my business and office. This is not so. I have not even talked of selling. I have been practicing dentistry in this county over sixteen years and have no intention of leaving. I also learn that one Dr. Dick is reported as being connected with this office, which is not the case. He did commence to learn dentistry with me, but went out of the office with my consent and before his time was out, but cannot come back again. Further he has no endorsement from me, as I know he is incompetent as a dentist. My brother sold his interest in this office to Dr. L. B. Holmes, (not S. Holmes) of New York. Dr. Holmes is a graduate of Philadelphia Dental College, and besides has had large experience. Dr. Holmes is now associated with me. We claim to do first-class work and at as low prices as such work can be done anywhere; and when men travel around the country and represent that they will do equally good work for much less prices, they simply won't do any such thing. Thanking the people for the patronage they have given us, we hope to merit a continuance of the same. W. J. PRATHER.

NEW PATENTS.—Through Dewey & Co., S. F., we receive the following list of U. S. Patents granted to Pacific Coast inventors viz: Wm. Gwynn, Sacramento, grates for lime kilns; Cheang Hue, S. F., shoes; Alois L. Becker and Fredrick W. Volkman, S. F., bottle covering machines; Philip Hinkle, S. F., air chambers for forcing water for operating elevators, etc.; Henry F. Williams, S. F., wood pavements; Andrew S. Hallidie, S. F., (re-issue,) improvement in underground tubes for propulsion of cars, patented June 20th, 1876; Martin R. Roberts, S. F., (re-issue,) coal screens and shutes.

RAINFALL.—Up to the time of our last issue the rainfall for this season amounted to 1.45 inches. Oct. 27th there was an addition of .51, and on the 28th 1.58, making a total to date of 3.45 inches—an abundance for all present needs.

WHITE FAWN.—Mr. Wash Lambert, of this place, took to the Marysville Fair for exhibition a white fawn a few months old. This is a very rare variety and the first we have ever seen. It is a perfect little beauty.

THANKSGIVING BALL AT WINTERS.—A grand Thanksgiving Ball will be given at Winters November 30th, which, from the extensive arrangements making, will no doubt be a very enjoyable affair.

Nothing but the Truth.

It is nothing but the truth to call Hostetter's Stomach Bitters one of the most comprehensive remedies ever in existence. Disease in so many cruel guises has yielded to its curative action, its combined invigorating and alterative properties constitute it such a powerful agent for the promotion or restoration of health, that it may well be doubted whether it does not bear away the palm from all competitors of its class, both as a healer and a safeguard. Through the agencies of restored digestion, a regular habit of body and complete secretion, it overcomes the various maladies which the interruption of those functions produces. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, urniary affections, nervous debility, insomnia, and maladies of a yet more serious nature, are eradicated by its systematic use. It restores the appetite, promotes sound, refreshing sleep, and neutralizes those atmospheric causes which originate chills and fever and other miasmatic disorders. Elderly persons find in this comforting elixir not only a remedy for the numerous bodily ills to which age is peculiarly subject, but a genuine solace and support. Females in delicate health use it as a means of overcoming those disabilities and irregularities which afflict the gentler sex, and nervous or billious subjects derive the promptest and most complete relief from it. There is, in short, no class of invalids that is not benefitted by the Bitters. It recreates wasted strength, fortifies the system against disease, and is one of the most reliable cordials in existence for overcoming the effects of fatigue, and affording protection against the consequence of exposure.

TO LOVERS OF GAME.—I wish to notify the public that I will buy and sell all kinds of game during the season, and shall try to give satisfaction to both sellers and buyers. Call at the grocery store. JOS. LABUXSIER. 47

Tilden and Reform.

Air—"Yankee Doodle."

Oh! sweep the cobwebs from your eyes,
The bondage long youv'e borne,
And greet the gladness in the skies
That speaks the coming morn.
It sweeps along—a sea of song,
A rousing, rushing storm;
One big hurrah, to clear the way
For Tilden and Reform!

Our Uncle Sam, the foe of sham,
Is wise and bold and faithful,
The ship of State, he'll trim her straight,
And staunch the old leaks, wasteful.
Her woes he'll heal, for rogues that steal
He'll make it hot and warm,
So topmast high we'll fill the sky
With Tilden and Reform.

CHORUS—Up and down, around the town,
The Boys in White will swarm,
Their foes to drown and sing them down,
With Tilden and Reform.

Little Mac's Call to His Old Veterans.

Composed and sung by Jerome Deasy, Sergeant-Major of the 70th N.Y. V., for the McClellan Legion of California.

McClellan calls to arms, my boys,
Let's answer with a will,
We fought with him on many a field,
And also many a hill!
We fought with him at Fair Oaks,
And down on Malvern Hill,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!

CHORUS—Hurrah, hurrah, we'll sing the jubilee,
Hurrah, hurrah, the flag that we set free,
And now we'll sing the chorus
This year of jubilee,
And vote for Uncle Sammy Tilden.

And there is General Sigel,
Who never did know fear,
He fought on many a battle field
For the country he loved dear,
And now he fights mit Tilden,
The hero of this year,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!

CHORUS—Hurrah, etc.

And there is General Hancock,
A soldier we love dear,
Commander of the Second Corps,
And the enemy he made fear;
He's going to vote for Tilden
This centennial year,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!

CHORUS—Hurrah, etc.

Then comes fighting Josey Hooker,
A hero we know well;
He fought on many a bloody field
Where comrades round him fell;
He fights this year for Tilden,
And you bet he'll do it well,
Shouting the battle cry of freedom!

CHORUS—Hurrah, etc.

It is remarkable that at a time when the depreciation of silver is causing universal anxiety China is simply devoid of coin. Interest has run up to 36 per cent., and money is hardly obtainable at that rate in the Shanghai market. The hoarding of coin is carried on extensively throughout the Chinese Empire.

Two years ago the cry through the land was: "Farmers to the front—politicians take back seats!" Have the times grown any better? Are we any more prosperous in 1876 than we were in 1874? Yet to-day the politicans' cry of the "bloody shirt" drowns all others; and the farmers have to take back seats.

In 1874, the people of Nebraska applied for 2,000 rifles in order to defend their homes against the Sioux Indians. Congress refused to let them have arms. Centaur Liniments!

The Quickest, Surest and Cheapest Remedies.

Physicians recommend, and Farriers declare that no such remedies have ever before been in use. Words are cheap, but the proprietors of these articles will present trial bottles to medical men, gratis, and will guarantee more rapid and satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

The Centaur Liniment, White Wrapper, will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Swellings, Sprains, and any ordinary

FLESH, BONE OR MUSCLE AILMENT.

It will extract the poison of bites and stings, and heal burns or scalds without a scar. Lock-jaw, Palsy, Weak Back, Caked Breasts, Earache, Toothache, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions readily yield to its treatment.

Henry Black, of Ada, Hardin Co., Ohio, says: "My wife has had rheumatism for five years—no rest, no sleep—could scarcely walk across the floor. She is now completely cured by the use of Centaur Liniment. We all feel thankful to you, and recommend your wonderful medicine to all our friends."

James Hurd, of Zanesville, O., says: "The Centur Liniment cured my neuralgia."

Alfred Tush, of Newark, writes: "Send me one dozen bottles by express. The Liniment has saved my leg. I want to distribute it, etc."

The sale of this Liniment is increasing rapidly.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is for the tough skin, flesh and muscles of HORSES, MULES AND ANIMALS.

We have never yet seen a case of Spavin, Sweeny, Ring-bone, Wind-gall, Scratches or Poll-Evil, which this Liniment would not speedily benefit, and we never saw but a few cases which it would not cure. It will cure when anything can. It is folly to spend $20 for a Farrier, when one dollar's worth of Centaur Liniment will do better. The following is a sample of the testimony produced:

"JEFFERSON, MO., Nov. 10, 1873.

"Some time ago I was shipping horses to St. Louis. I got one badly crippled in the car. With great difficulty I got him to the stable, on Fourth Avenue. The stable-keeper gave me a bottle of your Centaur Liniment, which I used with such success that in two days the horse was active and nearly well. I have been a veterinary surgeon for thirty years, but your liniment heads anything I ever used.

"A. J. M'CARTY, Veterinary Surgeon."

For a postage stamp we will mail a Centaur Almanac, containing hundreds of certificates, from every State in the Union. These Liniments are now sold by all dealers in the country.

Mothers.

Castoria is the result of 20 years' experiments, by Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Massachusetts. It is a vegetable preparation as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Ind., says of it:

SIRS:—I have tried the Castoria and can speak highly of its merits. It will, I think, do away entirely with Castor Oil; it is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The Castoria destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th, AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the Nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral specimens, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are erected the largest buildings ever constructed,—five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,000,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the Exhibition is near two hundred. During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD,

THE GREAT TRUNK LINE

—AND—

Fast Mail Route of the United States,

Is the most direct, convenient and economical way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trains to and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exclusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station on this road.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD IS THE GRANDEST RAILWAY ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD. IT CONTROLS SEVEN THOUSAND MILES OF ROADWAY, FORMING CONTINUOUS LINES TO WASHINGTON, OVER WHICH LUXURIOUS DAY AND NIGHT CARS ARE RUN FROM CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, LOUISVILLE, CINCINNATI, INDIANAPOLIS, COLUMBUS, TOLEDO, CLEVELAND, AND ERIE, WITHOUT CHANGE.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at faster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The unequaled resources at the command of the Company guarantee the most perfect accommodations for its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition.

THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect roadway an ever-changing panorama of river, mountain and landscape views unequaled in America.

THE EATING-STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.

EXCURSION TICKETS, at reduced rates, will be sold at all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West, North-west and Southwest.

BE SURE THAT YOUR TICKETS READ VIA THE GREAT PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE TO THE CENTENNIAL.

SACRAMENTO CAL.

AITKEN & LUCE

Make the following proposition to those who wish Monuments or Headstones, and who come to the City for the express purpose of selecting. We will pay the R.R. fare both ways when the distance and amount of purchase compare with the following table:

$50 00	Contract—	30	miles	or less.
$75.00	"	40	"	"
$100.00	"	50	"	"
$250.00	"	75	"	"
$500.00	"	150	"	"
$1,000.00	"	300	"	"

Thus giving purchasers the opportunity of making their selections, instead of dealing with inexperienced canvassers.
